Client Agreement

– For document supply requests made by email –

The Resource Centre MUST be in possession of the original signed document.

Faxed copies cannot be accepted.

Background:

1. The client wishes to send document supply requests to the DRUG ARM Resource Centre via email.
2. The Copyright Act of 1968 (the Act) requires that such requests be in writing and that a signed declaration be furnished by the client to the Resource Centre before any copies are made and supplied to the client.
3. This agreement seeks to address the requirements of the Act for the purpose of email requests.

The Client agrees with the DRUG ARM Resource Centre and declares as follows:

All photocopies requested by me under this agreement are required for the purpose of research or study, will not be used for any other purpose.

The Resource Centre may treat as signed by me any email request and declaration made under Subsection 49 (1) of the Act that bears my name.

I understand that it is an offence under Section 203F of the Act to make a declaration under Section 49 that I know, or reasonably ought to know, is false or misleading in a material particular, and that I will not allow any request to be signed in the manner provided under Clause 2 above without my authority.
